The fees claimed in respect of these cases is in order. In other 29 cases it is not possible to check whether the claim of the Govt Pleader is in order unless the copies of the memo of costs are furnished. One other point arises for consideration. The Govt pleader has claimed in his bills the other expenses incurred by him towards stamps on vakalats, Copy applications and purchase of Copying sheets. These items cannot be checked by Audit looking into the Origin of Records of the Court or else the accounts of the Govt Pleader have to be accepted.

24/9/44

283 13-0

46) The Govt Pleader seems to have obtained an advance of Rs 100/-. The expenses fees claimed in respect of the eight cases which have been checked may perhaps be sanctioned to enable the advance being recouped.

47) The charges claimed for Vakalat copying fees etc may perhaps be accepted as the amounts are small and the labour involved in the scrutiny of the records in all the 37 cases would be disproportionate.

48) Copies of memo of costs will be obtained in respect of the remaining 29 cases.
